2018/2019 CROSS-OVER/PREDICTION NIGHT: 31ST
DECEMBER, 2018/1ST JANUARY, 2019

BE THE FIRST TO KNOW

THE BREAK DOWN OF WHAT THE LORD HAS SAID THROUGH HIS PROPHET, HIS MOUTH-PIECE (Amos 3:7 & 8; Job 33:23 – 26) FOR THE NATIONS ACROSS THE WORLD. READ AND BE GUIDED.

The Prophet has led the congregation to give thanks to God for the out-going year, 2018 and for ushering us into a brand New Year. He prayed God to show His mercy to all who have decided to cross to the New Year in the house of God. He tasked believers of Jesus Christ to be committed to the service of God in the year ahead especially in this election year, 2019. He added that what the year 2019 holds is more than Nigerians had experienced since 1999. He added that satan is on the loose because the core value of human living has dropped drastically.

We are at the perilous time as said by Apostle Paul in 2nd Timothy 3:1 – 9 and as Our Lord Jesus Christ highlighted to His disciples at the Mount of Olives in His last dispensation during His earthly ministries (Matthew 24:1 – 36). People are now lovers of pleasures rather than lovers of God. No one can be trusted in this dispensation. My caution remains as it has been. Satan, the devil wants to occupy everywhere, especially more in the pulpit but Jesus Christ still caution His disciples to be watchful and occupy with the doctrines until He comes. Satan thinks he is faster than God, but as I have always counseled, when someone talks more than he thinks, the scriptures refer to him as a fool (Proverbs 16:1 & 2, 9 & 25; Eccl. 5:3), etc. My prayer has been “God let my sermon give orientation to all the hearts that receive my messages now”.

THE WARNINGS:

- Our nation, Nigeria needs more prayer to avert the worse turmoil that is boiling now. There may be no election in 2019. Rather, there may be revolution whereby many heads of the stakeholders may roll. Can of worms may be opened to trigger the maladies.
- The Cabals that hold the nation on siege may be the first victims.
- If at all, the elections may hold, it may be inconclusive and that may trigger more troubles across the nation. The nation is sitting on a keg of gun powder. Do not stop praying. Let us continue to ask for the mercies of God upon our land (2nd Chronicles 7:14). 'If my people which are called by my Name...'
- There are serious agitations going on in the military circle to the effect that many that are over due for retirement are still serving. This may be to protect their integrity.
- Nigerians cannot afford to fight another civil war. So let's pray for inevitable.
- The foundation of the Deputy Governor of Edo State is shaking. There is trouble for him that may heat up his seat as the Deputy Governor of Edo State. The Governor, Godwin Obaseki is not involved in the tension, but Psalm 11:3 stated that if the foundation be destroyed, what can the righteous do? It means Hon. Philip Shaibu should sort himself out in his constituency.
- More deaths of elder-statesmen in 2019. What the nation has witnessed in 2018 was just minimal. Great, Generals Overseers should pray hard to survive 2019. Troubles will be as a result of perverting the judgments and complicating issues for love of money and fear of the authority of the world (Government).
- Sentiment has killed our nation: religious sentiments, tribal sentiments, political sentiments. I perceived that same sentiment can divide the nation if care is not taken (James 4:17). 'To him who knows what is good and fails to do it, to him is counted unto him as sin'.
- Pray for some outgoing Governors, especially from the South-East to survive first quarter of 2019. Also the APC National Chairman to pray and fortify his security to avert assassination in his home state, even in his L. G. Area Council.
- More tension for Edo Governor; betrayal around him; but he will survive all.

- More killings in 2019. This time, organized kidnapping and killings in Edo, Benue, Delta, Eboyi, Kogi, Nasarrawa, Kaduna States; in fact, in all the geographical zones in Nigeria. Nigerians are to watch and pray to avert all the troubles.
- The nation is not heading for the better. For now, let Nigerians rise up to protect our nation.
- Political malady: Political Malady.
- Economic malady at its worse proportion.
- Insecurity in the highest proportion.
- Tell me why there will be no revolution in Nigeria.
- Attempt to make Edo State one party State will create more trouble and tension and inflation due to cash that exchanged hands or do we call it vote buying? There will be more money than commodities.
- Port-Harcourt will boil. Well! Well! Well!!!
- Prof. Yemi Osinbajo (The Vice President) needs prayers or may be threatened to resign for them to fix their choice.
- Kogi State will boil again: this time arson of the highest order just to cover up. There will be no meaningful development in Kogi State until a man of God will be invited to revoke the curses laid on the land. More death of prominent indigenes of Kogi State again and again.
- The Prophet called for genuine prayer warrior, not hired prayer warriors who went to Abuja to organize a political support for a particular assignment in the name of prayer. What we need is just three days organized prayers in Abuja at Eagle Square as it was done in 1998. Without this, it will be as if there was or there has never been prayers said in the land. Muslims and Christians, on a different dates, just about 30 people from each state who are passionate about the land to assemble at the agreed venue. There will be near answer to our expectations or the nation may be heading for revolution in 2019.
- Tension on who to take-over from Godwin Nogheghase Obaseki arises as he may run a single tenure. This will not work out. Let him alone work it out. The former choice of Edo people bowed to people's expectations and he may win the incumbent Governor on organized primary nomination. Also to retain the incumbent deputy governor who has lost his constituency's recognition. The expected number four in Obaseki's administration must watch before stepping in. It is uncommon drama; reconciliation is recommended. To avoid politics of bitterness that will affect the ex-governor for double deal, he may lose from the top again or jailed.

- Nigeria would have gone during Abdulsalami Abubaka era. This time it is going to be more critical due to the nature of national government. Soldiers at Aso Rock with civilians all over the states. Too many people may go or castration or jailed. Many may die or choked. National Government for four years. No political party will be nominated to run. There is no one good among them on top.
- To stop the tension and economic malady, the better option is military on board. It will be peaceful transition to stop the tension or heat up polity. Serious prayer is needed.
- Nigeria will experience more devastating flood in 2019 that may claim lives as it was in 2012.
- Attack on Israel may attract world attention. Prayer for Jerusalem should continue.
- Nigeria is at the verge of disintegration: it either break or army comes in for God's will to be done in Nigeria in 2019 starting from February.
- Pray that aircraft carrying top people including elder statesmen will survive crash or planted bomb. Too many evil ahead in 2019.
- Too many kidnappings, killings in the South South; middle belt, even in Edo State. Pray against whatever that will incite or trigger civil war. Pray for peaceful transition.
- More raging fire incidence again in 2019 in Lagos Nigeria, in United States of America and in Australia.
- Asia countries are to watch out for strange occurrence that looks like the event that happened in 2014 December.
- France and United Kingdom are to be on the watch against breach of security attacks, destructions before apprehension.
- Libya again – troubles.
- Democratic Republic of Congo: War continues. Prayers needed to save lives.
