(LUKE 9:28 – 36)

BE THE FIRST TO KNOW

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PREDICTION FOR NOW AHEAD OF CORSSOVER NIGHT OF 31ST DECEMBER, 2019/1ST OF JANUARY, 2020.

The prophet who emphasized on this year's Theme: LIBERATED FOR SPIRITUAL ADVANCEMENT, called on Nigerians especially the religious leaders to be concerned about the expectations that will provoke good governance for our citizen's benefits rather than emphasis on situation which he said will not help the nation but heat up the polity and hopelessness. He noted that they that hope in government will always complain while those who hope in God develop ideas to complement government efforts. Prophet Sunday Okpere has advocated for godly attitude that will promote brotherly love to neighbor-hood without tribal, political or religious sentiments. He lamented on the politics of bitterness despite the political party in majority, hence there is no solution to peaceful living due to contentiousness in the leadership.

The prophet who led his congregation for the four sessions of prayers in 24 hours since the past 24 years asked the Christians and other religious bodies to always stand up for the truth and lead in truth like the mentors, especially our Lord Jesus Christ who taught His disciples during His earthly ministry with a strong instructions to ensure they carry their cross and follow Him as it was known to the early Christian during the message of Salvation. He opined that many Nigerians of today has gradually reduced the message Salvation to prosperity in materialism, hence the need for those who practice Christianity to be liberated and raise the church to re-ignite the fire of Christ in the minds of Christians. He spoke further:

- The drum of war or more killing is beating at higher level. Winning in court or not, the nation, Nigeria may experience the worse killing in the years ahead. Prophet Sunday Okpere said that even when there is no war, about 847 soldiers have been killed since 2013. These are the countable people, aside civilians and those that cannot be seen. This is why the leaders must work hard to protect the lives of the remaining citizens of our country. They should endeavor to avoid killings across the nation.
- Inflation will rise to a worsen proportion. If the move by the President to cut down cost of governance is aborted: life will be more unbearable in the country.
- More economic hardship even with the increase of minimum wages. It may be likened to a draught.
- The Vice President, Prof. Yemi Osinbajor need prayers to come out alive, even if he could not continue with them. He might be humiliated out of the government.
- Leave Governor Godwin Nogheghase Obaseki alone. The problem has left the physical to the spiritual. Blood may be shared. We need prayers to avert whatever might heat up the polity because those who do not like good things are planning evil. They must realize this (Romans 13:1 – 7) that whichever position is ordained by God, youth must respect the authority.
- In my predictions to herald 2019 Crossover night, I did say that an attempt to make Edo State one party state will provoke troubles unto dogs eating dogs. Now Edo State has 24/24 in a single party in Edo state house of assembly, yet Edo has witnessed the highest rifts in the house due to selfish ambition. Thank be to God their battles never affect the good governance or development going on in the State.

- The national chairman of APC needs prayers to retain his position till first quarter of 2020. He also needs prayer for protection. Court may indict him. In all, peace is ultimate. He may lose his position by first quarter of 2020.
- Bad remarks in Kogi and Bayelsa elections. It may be inconclusive elections due to battles and arsons. Pray for protection of the innocent persons. Top party leaders may be attacked or kidnapped in the process.
- There may be tough/worse fire incidents in Edo, Lagos Kano States, South Eastern parts of Nigeria. It could be ragging fire where lives may be lost. Pray for the victims for protection, etc.
- The proposed peace committee may fail in their duties or are handicapped, except something urgent is done by the elder statesmen of the nation to arrest the ugly phenomenon of lawlessness in bypassing judgment.
- The backwardness of our nation is still hunting the citizens, hence the nation is not heading for the better. The wounds of the war that has not been treated in a round table talk may lead to another war. Yet the leaders of the nation insist that they are comfortable the way things are. So it is either the history is unfair to us or our leaders are blind to it. Indeed the death meant to kill a dog does not allow her to smell faces. As the saying goes, those who do not understand history are bound to repeat it.
